Spiritual Solutions for Injury & Doubt

What can we do when injured physically, mentally, or emotionally? St Francis says, “Where there is injury – PARDON.” I love this word pardon because it completes the work of forgiveness. Many times, we forgive but we forget to release – let go. It is only in the letting go that pardoning is complete. As we pardon, we are pardoned.

This time in history I see more doubt than ever. Doubt in our health system to protect us. Doubt in our economy to keep us financially safe. Doubt in our police to protect all human beings. Doubt in our churches to help. We discovered that at the roots of all doubt is fear.

St Francis says, “When there is doubt – FAITH.” Where is your faith, confidence, and trust? Do you find yourself losing your faith in the teachings of Jesus or the Principles of Unity? That is okay – no judgment. We start where we are and reconnect with what we know is True. We always know we are on the path of True Faith when we feel that Peace within. That kind of faith creates confidence in the Truth.

See you soon,
